Major Martin and Sergeant Harvey to Be Called Back to Washington—Safe at Port Moller, After Having Been Missing Eleven Days in Wilds of Alaska—Plane Wrecked—Undergo Many Hardships.

(By The Associated Press.)
FALSE PASS, Alaska, May 11.—Major Frederick L. Martin, world flight commander whose plane was smashed against a mountain on the Alaska peninsula, April 30th, intends to leave Port Moller, Alaska, tomorrow for the United States.

Word came here from Port Moller that Major Martin and Staff Sergeant Alva L. Harvey, his mechanic, would be aboard the cannery tender Catherine D. of the Pacific American Fisheries of Bellingham, Washington. The Catherine was to leave a cannery at Port Moller tomorrow for Puget Sound.

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 12.—Major Frederick L. Martin and his mechanic, Staff Sergeant Alva L. Harvey, will be ordered to Washington direct from Port Moller, Alaska, where they arrived safely after their airplane had been wrecked and they had been missing for 11 days in the wilds of Alaska.

The two aviators will be assigned to duty in the army air service headquarters temporarily but their names will be kept on the list of the around the world flyers, in recognition of the hardships they have endured in vainly attempting to lead the squadron in the globe-encircling flight.

The plans of the air service also will permit Major Martin to keep the destination of commanding officer of the flight, Lieutenant Smith's title being that of acting officer in charge.

(By The Associated Press.)
Major Frederick L. Martin, of the army globe encircling air squadron and his mechanic, Staff Sergeant Alva L. Harvey, alive and well after having undergone severe hardships during the ten days they were missing, today were waiting at Port Moller, 100 miles west of Chignik, Alaska, on the Alaskan peninsula, for instructions from Washington that will determine their next step.

The aviators were resting in the quarters of the Pacific American Fisheries Company at Port Moller, and are receiving the best of care. Meanwhile the coast guard cutter Algonquin was speeding to the rescue of the two aviators back to Dutch Harbor. No additional information had been received here from Port Moller since the message giving news of the arrival of the aviators early this morning.

It was reported that the aviators were injured when their plane crashed into a mountain peak and was wrecked at 12:30 o'clock on the afternoon of April 30. One hour later the aviators left Chignik for Dutch Harbor to rejoin the air squadron.

Making their way over frozen wastes with the greatest difficulty, subsisting on the condensed milk they carried, the aviators finally reached on Sunday a trapper's cabin reached on the southern point of Port Moller Bay. Exhausted by their long tramp, they remained at this cabin three days, recovering their strength and then walked along the coast to Port Moller where they were alive and unhurt.

No word had been received early today from Attu Island, where the rest of the air squadron was waiting favorable weather for a hop across Bering Sea to Paramushiro, in the Kuriles, at the North Island, in the Japanese empire. In that jump the aviators will cover a distance of 575 miles, the longest in 27,000 circuit of the earth on the fliers' schedule.

Three robberies were reported to the police this morning. Two Craghead street concerns being broken into and a store on Monument street. The store of J. T. Luther was entered during Sunday night and two or three cartons of cigarettes taken along with a revolver which was kept in a show case.

Mr. Luther said that he could miss nothing else. The thief apparently had a key with which to unlock the door. There was no evidence of a forcible entry and the door was found locked.

Thieves also entered the wholesale grocery store of Tate and Thomas on Craghead street and then scaled a partition and entered the premises of J. M. Thomas and Co., which deals in notions. The extent of these robberies has not been determined though it is not believed any great quantity of material was stolen.

TOWN TOPICS

Clerk of the court Otis Bradley this morning received notification from Governor Trinkle that he had designated Judge Richard S. Ker of Staunton to hold court here beginning next Wednesday morning at which time both grand and petit juries will be summoned to be present. Judge Withers who has been ailing recently is reported as improving.

Frank Talbott left Sunday night for New York where he will attend the annual convention of the American Waterworks Association. The association will last for about three days and will be featured by discussions on technical subjects and on problems confronting men in this profession.

The steady cold rain which fell in this section from Saturday night throughout yesterday registered one inch and 58-100th according to measurements taken this morning by H. M. Watkins, recorder for the government. Slightly more than an inch and a half of rain fell from eight o'clock Saturday night until the same Sunday night. The average rainfall for a month in Danville is four inches. Mr. Watkins said.

The city engineer has let a contract to W. L. Davis of this city to repaint Worham Street bridge which has long been in need of this improvement. The contract price for the work is $2,350. Offered in bids tendered by several local painters. The work is to be started at once and will be finished before the hot weather sets in. The task is not an easy one especially painting the high pillars rising from the river bed.

The city council will hold its regular May meeting at half past seven o'clock tonight in the council chamber. All of the committees have met and have formulated reports to be presented at tonight's meeting. The docket of business to be transacted is not a very long one, according to R. P. Moss, clerk of the council.

A fine of $101 was imposed in the police court this morning on A. R. Shields of Chatham who on Sunday evening tried to negotiate the foot bridge between Grove street and Main street in his Ford touring car. The driver on rainy Sunday attracted quite a crowd. It appeared that Shields who was charged with driving his car while intoxicated, thought in a moment of forgetfulness that John Henry could negotiate the narrow bridge and that it appeared to him wider than it really is. The machine went about ten feet on the bridge, when the fundamental laws of mathematics made themselves between the machine and the fenders of the coupe were scared. Police Detective Campbell received the call and going to the spot found Shields seated on the bumper of the machine. He offered no explanation this morning.

No additional names of candidates were filed with the clerk of the corporation requesting that they be placed on the ballot to be voted on June 4th. The time for this formality has expired and no other names can be placed on the ballot. The names filed include nineteen for the council and two for the office of mayor.

Hardly a day passes but that some report regarding a change in the schedule of the local textile corporation's operations is heard. These periodic reports which appeared to bear some relation to the rest of the world this morning and reached the offices of the Dan River Mills from several sources. When enquiries were made it was stated that there had been no change in the present policy of the corporation and that the schedule obtaining are the same as those in force for the past few weeks.

SHENANDOAH RIVER HIGHEST IN FIFTY YEARS

Serious Damage Feared as Waters Continue to Rise—James River is Also Swelling.

(By The Associated Press.)
CUMBERLAND, Md., May 12.—The Cumberland region of the Potomac Valley was stricken by a flood today, the second within six weeks. Heavy rainfall over the water sheds for two days caused the Potomac River and its tributaries to leave their banks, flooding numerous Maryland and West Virginia cities and towns, washing out bridges and tying up railroad and highway traffic.

Two fatalities were reported. At Winnum West Virginia, Charles Smith, employed by the western Maryland railroad to watch for landslides was killed by a train. The body of an unidentified male was recovered from the Potomac at Spr John Run, West Va.

Willis Creek, flowing through the Cumberland business district, left its banks late last night and the Mechanic Street region was under 18 inches of water. Business was paralyzed and industrial plants were forced to suspend operations when the flood waters invaded the works.

The $10,000 temporary bridge, erected to replace the structure swept away by the flood six weeks ago, between Western port, Md. and Piedmont West Va., was washed out. Scores of families in Cumberland, Western Port, Piedmont, Keyser and Hancock were driven from their homes by the high waters. The railroads were hard hit by landslides and the national highway east of here was inundated.

(By The Associated Press.)
HARRISBURG, Pa., May 12.—The Shenandoah Valley of Virginia was experiencing today its worst flood in twenty five years.

The Shenandoah River had risen more than ten feet at midnight and with many small streams out of their banks as a result of thirty-six hours of heavy rain. Emptying their waters into the river the Shenandoah was rapidly reaching the stage where it feared serious damage would be done to bridges, roads, railroads, farms and power plants.

Not in fifty years has the Shenandoah been as high as it is now. Old inhabitants of the valley declared this morning, and officials at the Harrisburg municipal hydro electric plant said the race bank at the plant appeared doomed before the flood reaches its crest. Many business houses and residences here were flooded and automobile traffic along the valley turnpike was practically paralyzed.

The roads are covered with from 6 inches to 6 feet of water, causing several drivers to plunge their automobiles into ditches because they could not see the roads. Many tourists abandoned their cars and are staying at the nearest home.

JAMES RIVER RISING

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., May 12.—A special warning of flood conditions in the James River at Richmond was issued this morning by the local weather bureau, warning that the water was expected to reach a stage of fourteen feet within twenty four hours and probably would rise higher later.

SHIPS TAKEN OFF RUN

(By The Associated Press.)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., May 12.—Flood waters in James River at Richmond and intervening points are so high that the Buxton line steamers today announced their ships would be taken off the run until the flood subsided.

CROPS WASHED OUT.
(By The Associated Press.)
ROANOKE, Va., May 12.—Streams in this part of the state are considerably swollen as a result of the recent rains, but no damage to bridges has been reported. Crops in lowlands have, in places, been washed out. Both the Norfolk and Western and the Virginian Railways report that their properties have not been damaged. Rain fell steadily yesterday and last night and showers are continuing today.

RIVER AT 13 FEET.
(By The Associated Press.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., May 12.—James river stood at 13 feet here at midday today, with warning being issued for a stage ranging from 18 to 20 feet during the next 24 hours. Thus far no damage has been done by the rising water. The rainfall over Sunday at no times reached proportions which caused any damage in this section.

HARD TO PROVE SANITY AFTER BEING ADJUDGED INSANE ONCE

By J. W. McDONALD
(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)

DES MOINES, May 12.—It is as easy as rolling off a log to get yourself adjudged insane—as many followers of celebrated murder trials long have yourself unbalanced it something else again to prove that you are sane. These facts have just been clearly demonstrated in Des Moines by John L. Spivak, newspaperman with a penchant for "stunts."

Assigned to test out the theory that there is a lot of bumble about insanity pleas in criminal trials, Spivak sallies forth from his newspaper office and got himself locked up as a "dangerous nut" in less than half an hour. All he had to do was talk grandiloquently about his millions.

Spivak motored to police headquarters in a taxicab and asked permission to see the chief. Confronted by that official he asked the loan of armed guards to convert a large sum of money from a local bank to the New York train. That seemed to be all right and the chief consented. The guards arrived and Spivak said they were applied to certain types of insanity which he was taking to the metropolitan as a down payment on the German reparations, he was rushed quickly into the HouseGuest for three days.

There he stayed for three days, awaiting a hearing before the state insanity board. He helped his case along in jail by bidding up to $3,000.00 for a cigaret, and promising his cellmate to kill him, but not to do it until it got nice and dark.

When he asked for a Bible, the turnkey shook his head and muttered nervously: "That bugger is getting worse every minute."

By the time he got before the state insanity board, he had become disheveled and grimy. His announcement that he had no "permanent" home, but lived transiently in London, Paris, Vienna and Moscow, and that he had been locked in a cell without explanation "while France weeps for reparations" was enough for the insanity board.

He was adjudged a hopeless lunatic and ordered committed to the state asylum at Clarinda.

"Really I am not insane at all," Spivak then confided to the board. "I am just a newspaperman, out on assignment to test the insanity laws."

"Have, ha," said the chairman of the board. "That's a good one. Now I'll tell you one."

Spivak expostulated and pleaded in vain. All he got was sad, sympathetic shakes of the head, exclamations of "Yes, yes, we understand," and confinement in a straight jacket.

It took the combined efforts of Spivak's newspaper conferees from managing editor down, a stack of affidavits, and a lot of argumentation, to convince authorities that Spivak was not a dangerous maniac.

Spivak conceded that he could not have passed the physical tests, which are applied to certain types of insanity suspects. But "proving" that he had a purely mental type of insanity was the easiest assignment for which he ever drew a bonus.

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 12.—A new controversy in the tariff commission, growing out of failure to proceed with investigations dealing with imports of sugar, vegetable oils and fir, spruce, cedar and western hemlock logs has brought indications that President Coolidge may be asked to intervene and some talk also of resignations before the summer vacation adjournment.

Chairman Marvin and Commissioner Burgess, Republicans and Commissioner Glasie, Democrat, appear to be lined up in support of one set of opinions with vice Chairman Culbertson and Commissioner Costigan, Republicans, and Commissioner Lewis, Democrat, holding opposite views. Letters protesting against delay in the various inquiries recently have accentuated the commissioners' differences and some of them are described as fearing disturbance to business unless action is hastened on the appeals of rate changes.

JAIL BURGLARIZED AND 500 GALLONS OF WHISKY STOLEN

(By The Associated Press.)
PETERSBURG, Va., May 12.—Chesapeake county jail, at Chesapeake field Court House, was burglarized at an early hour this morning and 500 gallons of liquor held there for safe keeping were stolen.

Chief Sergeant Bowler received a hurried telephone call today from Chesapeake authorities, requesting that the Petersburg police ascertain whether or not the trail of the thieves had led to this city.

The only clue to the identity of the raiders, so far as is known, is that three cars were seen about daybreak leaving the vicinity of the jail. From the speed with which the machines were driven it was judged that the occupants were endeavoring to make a hurried getaway. It is believed that the party headed toward Petersburg. How many men the cars contained could not be learned, the party probably comprised at least six.

The raid was the most daring of the kind ever perpetrated in this section. The haul netted 275 gallons of corn whiskey in half casked jars of bonded whisky in each copper tank. The manner of the robbery's execution was evidence that the raiders were thoroughly familiar with the ground.

"SIGNAL FIRES" POSTPONED. WILL BE HELD AT MAJESTIC, DANCE QUESTION IS RAISED

The pageant, "Signal Fires," which was to have been given at the Ridge Street Tabernacle tonight at eight o'clock, has been postponed until tomorrow night, when it will be held at the Majestic Theatre. The reason given for the postponement and the change in location as given today by some of the promoters of this enterprise, is because of the sudden drop in the mercury and the discomfort of the roomy tabernacle due to the sudden cold.

The pageant, as heretofore announced, is being given tonight in several Virginia cities as a means of securing money for the establishment of the University of Virginia. The pageant was to appear and make a statement.

According to one of the Tabernacle trustees the director did not appear, but one of the promoters of the undertaking did make a statement before them, explaining just the nature of the appearance of the dance and could not cause offense. The final determination of the trustees was that permission should not be withheld.

The trustees attending the meeting were W. H. Cobb, president, James T. Watson, Mayor Harry Wooding, J. N. Wylie, J. E. Schofield and Herbert Martin. When the vote was taken, one of the trustees said this morning Messrs. Watson, Wylie and Wooding voted in favor of the pageant being given. Messrs. Schofield and Martin did not vote and neither did Mr. Cobb, who, as chairman, would be required to vote only in the event of a tie.

On Saturday one of the trustees saw an advertisement of Miss Frye, the toe-dancer, and the question was at once raised whether the tabernacle could be used for production in which dancing was featured. Permission had been given and some of the trustees felt that it was too late then to revoke its permission. However, it was pointed out that no mention had been made of the dancing feature and that it was doubtful if the building could rightly be used. These informal discussions resulting in a meeting of the trustees being called at Main Street Methodist Church after yesterday's meeting. The decision at which time the director of the pageant was to appear and make a statement.

"So Easily" Corrected Her
Constipated Condition.

Faunington, Ark.—"I have been keeping house for nineteen years," says Mrs. O. J. Guilliams, of near here, "and since I began housekeeping I can't remember a time when I haven't used Black-Draught, for my parents used it before me."

"I had suffered so much from constipation and, finding that Black-Draught corrected this condition so easily, I just keep it and use it. When I get dizzy and everything goes round, I know then that I must take Black-Draught. It regulates me, my head doesn't feel so heavy and I get all right."

"My husband had found it so beneficial for his headaches."

Poisons which may cause great pain and much danger to your general health are re-absorbed by your blood when not promptly eliminated. Don't neglect your health.

Theodore's Black-Draught acts on the liver and stomach, bringing on elimination and, by regulating the action of the liver, when it is torpid, helps to drive out the poisons and a condition of healthy activity.

Keep Theodore's Black-Draught in the house. Take it at the first sign of constipation, or liver trouble. Millions use it. You should.

POINCARÉ AND HIS CABINET MEET DEFEAT

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, May 12.—Nearly complete returns compiled at official headquarters today show that France in yesterday's elections decided on a considerable change in domestic policies and on at least important modifications in the method of handling her foreign affairs.

Premier Poincaré's majority in the chamber of the deputies was swept away in a violent swing of the political pendulum toward the left and the bloc National, which formed the bulk of that majority, was reduced there to second rank in the party groups.

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, May 12.—Returns for 301 seats, more than half the number in the chamber of deputies, show that a majority of 35 votes by yesterday's elections. This, however, does not necessarily mean that M. Herriot, the radical leader, will be the next premier, even should the present ratio of gains for the parties of the left continue for the 233 seats still to be heard from.

There are many difficulties to be surmounted before an arrangement can be made between the United Socialists and the Radical Socialists. The former must agree to support M. Herriot unqualifiedly. For their part the United Socialists will insist upon most important representation in the radical cabinet and their demands may prove unacceptable to M. Herriot.

With 301 seats heard from, the net gain for the parties at the left was 76.

The state of the parties was:
Radical Socialists 193
United Socialists 58
Republican Socialists 26
Bloc National 104
Conservative Right parties 8
Communists 8

On questions of foreign policy political experts look for 133 of these deputies to vote in favor of Premier Poincaré and 168 against him.

With only 16 seats missing official returns show that M. Poincaré will be in a minority of more than 50 votes in the new chamber.

The foreign office announces the following elected with 16 seats missing: Conservatives 19, Bloc National 208, Radicals 186, Republican Socialists 20, Socialists 111, Communists 24, Total 568.

Eyes of Furmen On Pimlico Today

(By The Associated Press.)
BALTIMORE, Md., May 12.—The eyes of all furmen will be on Pimlico today watching eagerly, and many of them anxiously, the outcome of the seventeenth renewal of the Preakness, Maryland's greatest racing spectacle, worth over $50,000 to the winner. Twenty thoroughbreds are carded to go the mile and an eighth through the mud.

W. C. Councillor, the Ward colt which had been easily the favorite in the race was suddenly withdrawn last night when his owner became disheartened by the condition of the track—very muddy from rain which fell almost steadily through Saturday night and Sunday. Reports current for several days that the Kentucky colt had not worked satisfactorily.

By the sloppy condition of the course caused the withdrawal.

The Rancocas stable's Mad Play now stands out most favorably in the eyes of the turfmen. Rancocas to be ridden by Sande, also summed up as a prospect.

Lakeview, Benjamin Block's Thordale and Rustic, owned by A. H. Morris, were being given more attention last night in view of track conditions. Both are known as mudders, as are J. W. Bean's Donachie, Senator Norris of the Kenyon stable, and Big Blaze of the Glen Riddle farm.

Notwithstanding the withdrawal of the weather man, the Pimlico management is preparing to handle a crowd expected to reach 30,000.

Four Citizens of South Boston Die In Single Day

(Special to The Bee.)
SOUTH BOSTON, May 12.—Death exacted a heavy toll from the ranks of the citizens of South Boston on Saturday, and the people were shocked Sunday morning when they learned that four citizens had passed the day before. It is also a remarkable coincidence that two of them had died at the same hour. The ages of the dead ranged from 30 to 78 years old, and one of them died suddenly. This is considered an extraordinary death record for a city the size of South Boston.

Miss Adeline Hazlewood, 78, died at her home about two miles from the city, at 4 o'clock, Saturday morning. The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Danna Lane, pastor of West End Methodist church at 4 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. Interment being made in the family burying ground. She is survived by four brothers, C. R. and W. E. Hazlewood of South Boston, Joe Hazlewood of Richmond and John Hazlewood of Danville, and three sisters all of Caswell county. Mrs. James Conner, Laura Perkins and Lena Dunevant.

Samuel W. Spencer, 53, died suddenly at Meherrin, Saturday evening at 9 o'clock, from a combined attack of heart-failure and acute indigestion. Mr. Spencer, his wife and little daughter, Lillian, had gone to Meherrin to spend the week-end with Mrs. Spencer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Bruce. He was in his usual good health and ate a hearty supper about 8:30 o'clock he complained of feeling badly and asked Mrs. Spencer to do something for him. She gave him some medicine and sent for a physician, who came and administered a hypodermic. Mr. Spencer continued to grow worse and died in a few minutes. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lottie Spencer nee Lottice Bruce, and one daughter, Lillian. Also by one brother and two sisters, T. M. Spencer and Mrs. R. T. Jeter of South Boston, and Mrs. Lelia Pitchford of Oxford, North Carolina.

He was a faithful member of the First Baptist church, and has a large number of friends in the city, where he was connected with the Jones Electric and Plumbing Company for a number of years. He accepted a position as chief engineer with the Export Tobacco Company about a year ago and was to leave for the company's plant in a few days to spend a month or six weeks. The funeral services were conducted from the home, 103 Broad street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, by Dr. R. R. Sanford, pastor of the First Baptist church. The interment took place in Oakridge cemetery. The popularity of Mr. Spencer was attested by the large number of beautiful floral designs sent by his former friends and neighbors.

J. A. Mercer, 63, died Saturday morning at the State Sanatorium, Staunton, Virginia. The funeral services were held at 10 o'clock. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Laura Mercer, four daughters and one son, Mrs. Ivey Kirkpatrick of Whitehall, Mrs. Fred Epps and Misses Zada and Melrose Mercer and Perker Mercer of South Boston.

Evangelist Kelly Opens a Revival at Keen St. Church

Evangelist Richard Alexander Kelly of Spangue Baptist church, Louisville, Ky., on Sunday morning began revival services at Keen Street Baptist church, which will continue through May 22nd. Large congregations were present yesterday despite the almost incessant downpour of rain and Rev. Jesse R. Hite, pastor of the church, said this morning that he felt greatly encouraged. The service was made yesterday by "Mothers' Day" and the songs in connection with the services were old time favorites appropriate to the day.

Two services will be held each day, starting today. The first of these will be at eleven o'clock in the morning and at night the services will begin at eight o'clock preceded by a strong service starting at half past seven o'clock. The evangelist's topic tonight will be "Revealing Jesus." Rev. Mr. Kelly is a trained pastor as well as being a striking exponent of the gospel. He is directing the work of three choirs while here, the Junior, intermediate and adult choirs all of which will assist in making the revival a success.

MOTHERS' DAY IS APPROPRIATELY OBSERVED

Mothers' Day was observed by the churches of South Boston, with special musical numbers appropriate for the occasion. Practically all of the people wore the white and red flowers, in accordance with the requirements of the sponsors of the day.

Rev. Danna Lane preached a special sermon at West End Methodist church, and special music was rendered. At Main Street Methodist, Misses Geneva, Nancy and Dahnello Patterson sang a trio: "Tell Mother I'll Be There." Gordon Bennett sang a solo: "Little Mother of Mine." Miss Margaret Tuggle played the piano accompaniment. Rev. John Garland Unruh, pastor, played a splendid tribute to mother in his sermon, and all of the songs used featured Mothers' Day. Miss Lucy Turner and Mrs. E. C. Jones sang a duet: "Tell Mother I'll Be There" and a solo: "Mother of Mine." The service was conducted by Rev. Danna Lane, who gave an interesting talk on mother, and Dr. Sanford interpreted his sermon with thoughts of Mothers' Day.

The other churches in the city suspended their evening services of radio, so that their members might unite with the members of the First Presbyterian church in a union service, and to give them an opportunity to hear Dr. R. G. McLees, who is conducting a series of revival services there. Despite the heavy downpour of rain, the church was crowded. Dr. McLees at this service. He used a three word text: "I Have Sinned," which he said could be found in more than 100 places in the Bible, but for the special message of the evening, the words were taken from Luke 15:18, in which chapter the parable of the Prodigal Son is set forth. Dr. McLees painted a wonderful word picture of the Prodigal Son, and his life after he had left his father's house, also of the confession, that he had sinned, when he found himself steeped in degradation and sin. He said that the prodigal could hope to be saved until their sinful condition was realized and they were willing to make the confession. He also stressed the importance of personal work in bringing others into the fold, pointing out the great possibilities of the word spoken to friend or neighbor at the proper time.

The meeting will continue through Wednesday evening of this week. There will be services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. The services will end with the close of the Wednesday evening service.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSN. HOLDS MEETING

The meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association, which was scheduled to meet at 8 o'clock this evening, was moved on account of the services at the First Presbyterian church, and was held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

CUMBERLAND AGAIN FLOODED

Waters Seriously Menace
City For Second Time
In Two Months.

(By The Associated Press.)
CUMBERLAND, Md., May 12.—For the second time within less than two months flood waters were lapping menacingly today at the heart of the Cumberland business district. Wills creek, taking its course through the downtown section, has left its banks in Mechanics Street, one of the principal business thoroughfares, has reached a depth of eighteen inches. Merchants worked throughout the night moving their stores to second floors.

The Potomac River and its tributaries reached flood stage during the early morning hours, forcing hundreds of families at Keyser and Piedmont West Va., to flee from their homes. At Piedmont a general fire alarm was sounded at midnight to warn the residents of the impending danger.

In Cumberland streets the waters were rising early today at the rate of eight inches an hour. No loss of life had been reported.

KIYOURA GOVT. FACES DEFEAT BY OPPOSITION

(By The Associated Press.)
TOKIO, May 12.—With nearly half of the constituencies, reported in Saturday's parliamentary election, a majority for the opposition combine against the Kiyoura government is virtually assured.

While belief is growing that Premier Kiyoura and his cabinet will resign shortly, it is stated, in authoritative quarters that the change in government will be withheld until after the formal state celebration early in June of the marriage of Prince Regent Hirohito.

Vicount Takaakira Kato, president of the Kenseikai party, is considered Kiyoura's most likely successor. Kato is a former minister of foreign affairs.

Official returns for 204 and 464 seats in the Saturday elections give:

Opposition: Kenseikai 67, Seiyukai 38; Kakushin Club 18; total for combined 121. Seiyuhoncho (government) 46; Business men's party 8, independents 28.

The Japanese policy toward the United States on the question of immigration will not be affected by an expected change in government in Japan, in the opinion of officials of the foreign office here.

If a new cabinet is formed with Kato as premier, it is probable Baron Kijuro Shidehara, former ambassador to the United States, would be named foreign minister.

Japan's next movement in the immigration matter is being framed by the "unofficial" section of the foreign office, which includes Shidehara and Kato Saburi, a former attaché of the Japanese embassy at Washington.

In view of the prospective defeat in the United States Congress of President Coolidge's proposed Japanese exclusion compromise, it was learned authoritatively that the foreign office is studying the immigration question wholly from the point of view that exclusion will become a fact on July 1. Under these conditions, it is believed that the most Japan can do is prepare a formal protest against exclusion on the ground that it will contravene treaty rights and injure the prestige of the Japanese nation.

SORE, BLEEDING GUMS STOPPED IN 12 HOURS

Creosene, A Pleasant Liquid That Accomplishes
At Home all the Good Benefits of Treatment
In Dental Chair Without the Pain and Expense.

Sore, bleeding gums indicate the beginning of pyorrhea. If neglected this infection spreads from the gum tissue to the root sockets—the foundation on which your teeth depend. Then the teeth fall out or must be pulled. Through a new discovery, Creosene, a pleasant penetrating liquid, medicated with gum healing and germ destroying ingredients used by the dental profession carries the medication direct to the roots of the teeth, healing pus pockets, destroying decayed teeth odors and killing the germ that leads to pyorrhea. The medicines used in Creosene are not new but are well known and used by the entire dental profession. The new discovery is the method of penetration which carries the gum-healing, germ-destroying medicines direct to the roots of the teeth and into every nook, corner and crevice in and between the teeth, thereby accomplishing at home, in a pleasant way, all the good benefits of a treatment in the dental chair, without the pain and expense. If your gums are sore and bleed easily or your teeth are loose, this is your warning of pyorrhea ahead. Do not wait one minute, but go immediately to any good drug store, and purchase a dollar bottle of Creosene with the positive guarantee of relief in not twenty hours or money refunded. Feared at First

(By The Associated Press.)
DEAL, Eng., May 12.—A big steamship, whose name and nationality could not be determined because of fog was aground on the notorious Goodwin sands this morning in a most dangerous position. Keen anxiety is felt and it is feared she is possibly a liner, numbers of which pass the Goodwin sands daily. Other boats and tugs are running to her aid from all ports in the vicinity. No wireless call has been reported from the vessel.

IS A CARGO BOAT
(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, May 12.—A message from Deal this afternoon says the steamer ashore on the Goodwin sands is a large cargo boat and not a liner. The vessel is high and dry at present.

The officers of the United States lines and the shipping board here declared today that none of their vessels was near the Goodwin sands.

Kelvinator Does Away—

With the Ice Refrigeration

Kelvinator eliminates the ice man, with his inconvenient hours and his dripping, dirty ice. Kelvinator is so much more efficient than ice, that there is literally no comparison.

In the first place Kelvinator fits right into the ice chamber of the refrigerator-box you now have. It supplies absolutely dry cold—cold which is several degrees lower than ice temperature.

Kelvinator is perfectly clean, very inexpensive to run, and it is always there.

You may go away for several days, leaving the refrigerator-box full of food and on your return be sure to find your meat and vegetables perfectly fresh and edible.

Kelvinator is so efficient that it has kept milk sweet for two weeks. It has actually kept oranges sound for a year. Resolve now to do away with ice by installing a Kelvinator. Get the facts.

At your request a courteous Kelvinator representative will call and without obligation explain just what Kelvinator refrigeration is and how easily it is installed in any home. Telephone, or if you prefer, come in and see Kelvinator demonstrated at

Are You Building a Home—or a House?

To build a real home, not just a house, takes skilled carpenters plus good dependable lumber

Leave one or the other out and you will not have a home that will last for a life time.

Inferior labor or poor lumber builds a house that very shortly becomes a liability—skilled labor and good lumber erects a home—not a house—that is truly an asset on any man's books.

Lumber is the backbone of every dwelling—good lumber must be used to secure a substantial home.

Build your home with lumber—weather seasoned—sun dried—nature treated—free from knots. Then winter's snowy winds—spring rains will leave no visible telltale marks.

It is no wonder that discriminating architects—well known builders—recommend Heidelberg lumber every time to home builders—it's good lumber.

CARDINALS AGAY BEAT THE GIANTS BY 3-2 SCORE
ST. LOUIS, May 11.—Driving the first ball pitched by Gearin into the bleachers for a home run, Blades started the scoring for St. Louis which made it two straight from New York in the second game of the series here today, one game being rained out. Pitcher Shoaf was in excellent form. He allowed the Winston aggregation seven hits but kept them well scattered. The game was featured by the fast work of the Danville outfield and the hitting of Tangeman, one of the outgardeners, who hit a floundering for the day. He got three bingles, one a two-bagger, and was hit once off the following inning. Inman was safe on an infield hit. Resco popped out to short. Tangeman doubled and Inman scored. Heath slammed out a triple and Tangeman scored. Cochlin singled to right and Heath crossed the plate. Shoaf drew out a right. Tangeman and Treffrey were out, second to first. Wills Will Meet Madden Tonight In a 15 Round Battle
(By NEA Service)
BOSTON, May 12.—Lee Fohl, new leader of the Red Sox, always seems fortunate in having a star shortstop on major league clubs he manages. That is why Boston fans are not surprised that Dudley Lee is making good.

When in charge at Cleveland, Ray Chapman, who was killed by a pitched ball thrown by Carl Mays, was his shortstop. He was rated the best in the league.

Taking over the St. Louis Browns, he discovered the club lacked a competent shortstop. Fohl urged the purchase of Walter Gerber, who previously had been tried out by Pittsburgh and turned back.

"I don't care what Pittsburgh did with Gerber," he's a good shortstop now, capable of holding his own in the majors, and in a few years will be a star," was Fohl's reply to the critics who pointed out that Gerber had failed at Pittsburgh.

Gerber is today rated one of the experts the best shortstop in the American League.

Mr. J. Weissmuller
Johnny Weissmuller is to swimming what eggs are to omelettes, to swimming what a duck is to a pond and to bathers what a life preserver is to a drowning man.

What is a mere Saturday night bath to the average tax evader becomes a new world's record, with no dissenters, when Weissmuller steps into the tub.

Noah took what practically amounted to a masterpiece in flood, and made nothing more of it than an interesting biblical episode; Weissmuller would have taken it and rewritten the swimming history of the universe.

Equipped with a flock of piscatorial legs and a pair of amphibious arms Weissmuller manages to get along swimmingly all the time.

Where Paddock says, with due politeness, to his rivals on the track, "Excuse my dust," the human fish just asks the boys to overlook his backwash.

Even Mr. Volstead never dreamed a guy could take himself to such a record-breaking orgy and use nothing but water.

Trying to figure out a way to fool Babe Ruth at the bat is a waste of time. Trying to figure out a way to beat Johnny Weiss is a waste of brains.

HEATH AND M'MULLEN ARE GIVEN RELEASES, TODAY IS LADIES' DAY

Danville Plays Durham Here This Afternoon—Wilson to Pitch—Belk Will Be Back in Game With Tangeman in Outfield and Inman at Third.

The Tobaccoists this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Stonewall Jackson park will play Bill Pierre's Durham club, opening a three-game series. Manager Murphy announced this morning that his choice for mound duty is Wilson and that the portlander will hurl the opening game against the Bulls.

It was also announced that today is Ladies' Day and every feminine fan will be admitted to the grandstand free, as guests of Owner Murphy. Confusion existing as to what days are Ladies' Day in Danville was cleared this morning. It was stated that the appearance of the Danville club at home each week would be Ladies' Day.

Pilot Murphy this morning was forced to cut his force to 14 men, as required by rules of baseball, the time limit having been extended a week by W. G. Bramham, president of the league. Two players were released. They are Claude Heath and infielder McMullen. Pitcher Allen, who is nursing a sore arm has been suspended and for once Murphy has the team down to 14 men. They are three outfielders, four infielders, including Murphy himself, two catchers and five pitchers, including Shoaf, loaned by Charlotte.

Belk has recovered from his recent injury and will be back in the game this afternoon at his position at second. Regan will go back to centerfield. With Regan, Tangeman and Trefrey, Murphy will have one of the fastest outfielders in the circuit—not only for this season but probably the fastest since the league was organized. All of these players are swift on their feet and are good judges of fly balls. Very few, if any balls, which are knocked on the way will get by these fleet youngsters. At third base Inman is showing up well in place of Stripp, recently released, and Murphy, Belk and Resco, at the other positions form an infield that needs no betterment at present. Cochlin will do the most of the receiving with Harrison held in reserve, for a while at least. In the pitching department, Murphy has Wilson, Harris, McWhirter, Maitland and Shoaf, with Allen on the suspended list.

Since the team has added Tangeman to the outfield and who has been making such a splendid showing and with Inman placed at third since their last appearance here and together with the fact that today is ladies' day, a large crowd is expected to be on hand, despite the fact that early this afternoon, it was a bit windy and the air somewhat chilled.

(By The Associated Press.) NEW YORK, May 12.—The 15 round heavyweight match between Harry Wills, negro challenger for Jack Dempsey's title, and Wills-Madden, veteran Irishman, scheduled for tonight at the Queensboro Stadium has been postponed until next Friday night because of rain.

Brower, chairman of the state athletic commission. The open stadium was deluged by an all night down pour. The card will remain intact for Friday night. The fighters will weigh in today before the commission despite the postponement.

Derby Week In Kentucky Opens

(By The Associated Press.) LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12.—Derby week opened today with horse racing followers speculating more on which of the nominees would be entered for the Kentucky derby at Churchill Downs next Saturday than of which thoroughbred would win. During recent days they have seen their hopes fade one by one, as Sarazen, St. James and other eastern favorites apparently have failed to measure up to the derby class.

More than a score of the 150 nominees would start seemed probable today. The large purse, $50,000, with $5,000 gold plate, to say nothing of the honor, will attract many owners of eligibles. The race, at a mile and a quarter, will be the fifth renewal of the classic.

Close to 100,000 persons are expected to attend the golden jubilee derby, according to estimates made by turf writers. Eighty thousand was the record claimed last year record claimed last year.

intended to have a good look at the suspects and judge from their demeanor in the emergency whether they should be held. Things did not work as well as hoped for, for the Studebaker car had begun crowding them and Baker and Chaney did not have time to maneuver their own car as a blockade. All they could do was to leap from their machine and stand flashlight in hand in front of the company store and to signal the oncoming car. This was at 11 o'clock. Nobody was about and the road was clear. Sergeant Chaney said this morning that the effect of the flashlights was electrical. The oncoming Studebaker suddenly became a thundering machine and with muffled open and a full head of gas the car tore by, both officers leaping back to safety.

One of them leaped to a telephone and called the Danville police department giving a quick injunction to get officers on the Main and Union street corner on and to stop any car coming down that way. The night relief was just preparing to go on duty and Police Sergeant Martin answered the call. He jumped into a car with Officers Bates, Mayberry and Foster. It is estimated that they reached Main street within two minutes from the time of the call. No sign of the car in question was seen though they remained there for some time scanning each one they encountered. There was not a Studebaker among them.

It will be the first opportunity of local fans to see the team in action in a whole week, and because of the winning spirit of the club, enthusiasm is again high and a large crowd is anticipated though the air this morning was somewhat chilled.

And today is Ladies' Day. Another reason why the crowd should be good. Manager Murphy announced this morning that ladies will be admitted free at this afternoon's game. Murphy's choice for mound duty is Lefty Wilson. Lefty hasn't pitched a game in a week now, but is still in good shape and should be "just right" for the Bulls.

The outstanding feature of the past week's road trip was the work of "Kid" Tangeman, both afield and with the willow. In fact the fast work of the Danville outfield has played a big part in most of Danville's victories.

The sports scribe at Winston Salem over the special "baseball telephone" Saturday said that it was the best looking outfield he had ever seen in the Piedmont. And what's more he said "Danville, you people over there, sure have a hustling ball club."

Belk has about recovered from his recent injury to his foot and is expected to be back in the game today. Regan has been taking care of his position.

After this first three game series here, The Tobaccoists will go to High Point to tackle the fast advancing Furniture Makers, who have gained a substantial lead in the league race.

Babe Ruth and Cy Williams, who tied for major league home run honors last season with 41, both started their circuit swatting on the same day this year. Ruth, however, has forged to the front and bids fair to gain lead the American League.

If good pitching coaches mean a thing, the Washington "ookie twirlers" should profit greatly. In Nick Altrock and Jack Chesbro, the Nationals have two old time stars to tutor the recruits.

Majority of the battles Johnson, who pitched the opening game at Washington and been victorious in a majority of the battle. Johnson, who is in his 18th year in fast company, intends to retire from big league ball. If he is able to buy a Pacific Coast League franchise.

21 ENTRIES IN PREAKNESS
BALTIMORE, May 10.—The entry list for the $50,000 Preakness as announced this afternoon shows a field of twenty-one thoroughbreds scheduled to face the barrier for the Maryland classic on Monday. Nearly every large racing establishment in the country is represented.

VOTE FOR

WALTER P. TUDOR

For Congress Fifth Congressional District Of Virginia,
Subject to Democratic Primary, Aug. 5, 1924.

To The Voters of The Fifth Congressional District:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination for representative in Congress for the Fifth District of Virginia, subject to the Democratic primary to be held on Tuesday, August 5th. If nominated and elected, as I hope to be, I unhesitatingly pledge myself to support every measure which beneficially affects the interests and the welfare of my constituents.

The Fifth District is overwhelmingly and decisively an agricultural one, and naturally one in which the advancement of the interests and the prosperity of the farming population is and should be the first and the fundamental consideration. A native of Patrick county, Virginia, I spent my boyhood on a farm and have always been in cordial and intelligent sympathy with the men and women upon whose welfare and prosperity that of all other classes and occupations fundamentally depend. If elected to Congress it will be my pleasure to support earnestly and as effectively as I am capable of doing, every measure framed in the interests of justice to and consideration for the farmer—the lightening of his burdens and particularly all legislation which will tend to reduce the high cost of everything he has to purchase or to advance the price of what he produces. I favor co-operation in all things. In this connection I deem it timely to say that I am opposed to class legislation of every kind, and will stand or fall on adherence to justice to all.

In this connection permit me to say that I am under the domination of no clique, faction or interest, and, if elected, will be absolutely free to advocate and vote for any legislation which appeals to me as just and in the interest of the constituency which honored me. In other words, I would as a representative be their servant, not their master, and at all times open to suggestion and advice with respect to pending or proposed legislation, or to legislation which may and ought to be proposed.

For the benefit of those who do not know, I beg to state that I have had five and a half years experience in the service of our Government in the Engineering Department during the construction of the Panama Canal, and three and a half years in the employ of the United Fruit Company in the Republic of Honduras. For the past seven years I have been located in the City of Danville, Virginia, as general agent of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, during which time I have had the handling of hundreds of thousands of dollars, which I have done to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Very respectfully, your fellow citizen,

Walter P. Tudor

HUNT'S WASHINGTON LETTER
By HARRY B. HUNT

By HARRY B. HUNT
WASHINGTON, May 12.—George H. Moses, senior senator from New Hampshire, ex-diplomatic elegance, and example of a turn of phrase. Just today he found this knock helpful in the social persiflage of his diplomatic days. As American minister to Greece under President Taft, George is reputed to have pulled the smooth one! Also, as editor of the Concord Evening Monitor, he was known throughout his state for the brilliancy and sparkle of his journalistic gems.
But it is in politics Moses believes. That the opportunity for reaping rich rewards from a well-turned line is greatest. A word or phrase that will catch popular fancy, he submits, will do more to win a campaign or put across a candidate than all the logic and argument and hard indigestible facts that can be assembled.
Willing to do his part as a word wizard to lead the Republican party out of the wilderness of the coming campaign, Moses recommends that party managers keep the spotlight focused constantly on "The Calm, Cautious, Courageous, Christian Character of Calvin Coolidge."
Taking a tip from Moses' dream book, Democratic dopesters have been trying out the names of some of their prospective candidates to see how they would fit in an alliterative or poetical catch-phrase.
Smith—rhymes with Myth. Not so good!
McAdoo—Boo! Shoo! Kerchoo! Ralston—Fits with "All's Good."
Cox—Let him pass
Glass—In a Box!
Davis—Ah! He might Save Us!
Little solace for the Dems from that list of names. If adaptability for fitting to fancy phrases is to be the deciding factor in the selection, Wherefore Democrats will decline.

To fight an alliterative battle with the G. O. P. and will answer the Republican challenge to "Keep Cool With Coolidge" by retorting: "Why put the country in Cold Storage?"
Much has been written about the likelihood of a third party, headed by Senator La Follette, but beyond picking the fighting senator from Wisconsin as the probable presidential nominee there has been little speculation as to the supporting personnel in the leadership of such party.
Harriet Stanton Blatch, daughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, pioneer suffragist, suggests that women who find difficulty in adjusting themselves to the policies and principles of the two old parties, which still function chiefly from the masculine viewpoint, seize the opportunity to get in on the ground floor in the La Follette party.
To make the party truly progressive, in its recognition of equal suffrage as well as in its attitude toward other fundamentals, she says second place on the ticket might properly be filled by a woman, and suggests Jane Addams as a vice-presidential candidate who would draw thousands of women's votes to the La Follette party.

"We women should forget every idea of a woman's party," says Mrs. Blatch. "The time has come for women to talk about getting things for women. That is played out. We must work for the things that are good for all humanity, not just for women alone."
Vermonters in Washington, at a "Maple Sugar" Party" thrown by Senator Porter Dale, whooped things up for Cal Coolidge, Plymouth (Vt.) boy, as a candidate for president. A "sweet" time was had by all.

WINDFALL
The income of the American people last year averaged about $550 apiece, according to Mechanics and Metals National Bank of New York. It estimates that 70 billion dollars was the total income of the whole nation—including wages, salaries, royalties, interest on investments, etc.
On this basis, a man and wife with two children would have had an income of $2500 during 1923, if everything were evenly divided. That's about $217 a month.
Did your family do better, or lag behind the average?

SCRAPPED
A London court decision admits the worthlessness of 120 million dollars worth of Confederate bonds sold in England by the Southern states during the Civil War. Most of us believed that any sane man years ago realized the worthlessness of these bonds. But the British never lost hope of recovering at least part of their investment.
Later you may read about courts admitting the utter worthlessness of Russian rubles and German paper marks. Confederate bonds and money today are worth far more than Russian and German currency, as historical relics.

SPENDTHRIFTS
The leading governments are beginning to live within their incomes, according to a check-up by the League of Nations. It reports Uncle Sam and John Bull spending less than they take in. South Africa and Finland have decreased their deficits near the vanishing point. Italy is spending a fourth more than her revenue. France, at the bottom of the list, is spending 100 francs for every 45 francs collected in taxes and other forms.
Where there is a burst of economy, it's usually due to politicians being unable to find more to spend.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The cotton market was influenced at the opening today by relatively easy Liverpool cables and prospects for better weather in the south. First prices were easier at declines of 32 to 37 points. Active months sold 28 to 40 points net lower after the call, July declining to 28.35 and October to 24.54. There was no improvement in the generally bullish character of private crop advices based on the unfavorable weather last week, however, and the market steadied up after the early offerings had been absorbed. Prices showed rallies of 15 or 20 points from the lowest toward the end of the first hour.

Everyman's Investments

By GEORGE T. HUGHES

SIXTEENTH ARTICLE
Farm Mortgages.

Good farm mortgages are one of the best forms of investment. When well selected, the security compares with that of high-grade utility and railroad bonds. The return, quality considered, is a little higher than that on comparable bonds. The reason for this slightly higher return is the lack of marketability of farm mortgages. As a rule the holder must wait until the mortgage matures for the return of his money. He may be shopping around and find a buyer but in that case he sacrifices something on the principal. Nevertheless, farm mortgages make an especial appeal to the small city or town dweller in agricultural regions who has little opportunity to become acquainted with other classes of investments. Before high income taxes drove investors of large wealth into tax exempt securities a good many farm mortgages were purchased by men of this class. Life insurance companies have also been and still are large buyers of farm mortgages. Farm mortgages cannot be bought indiscriminately. Probably the safest course is to loan on property located in the immediate neighborhood where the investor resides. In this case he can check up upon the value of the land, its income producing capacity, the character of the borrower. Also he is able to keep in personal touch with the status of his investment. It is, however, not always possible for the investor personally to find the kind of security he ought to have. Often his banker is able to place the amount desired to be invested in a satisfactory farm mortgage. For such service a small fee is charged. There are also mortgage loan companies scattered throughout the rural districts which make loans on farms taking the first mortgage as security and then reselling the mortgage to the individual investor. In this case the borrowing farmer pays the fee. Before dealing with any such mortgage companies, however, the investor should satisfy himself of the integrity, experience and conservatism of the mortgage company. The Federal Land Bank Act has profoundly affected the farm mortgage business and many of the companies formerly dealing in these mortgages have retired from the field. With these Land Bank mortgage loans and bonds subsequent articles will present more information.

(Mr. Hughes' seventeenth article will appear in The Bee next Wednesday.)
